2008 Carlton Cellars Pinot Noir Seven Devils

Rating: 88

Drink: 2010-2017

The 2008 Pinot Noir Seven Devils spent 10 months in barrel. It offers up a pretty perfume of rose petal, cinnamon, clove, strawberry, and cherry. Forward on the palate with plenty of spicy fruit, a bit of structure, and moderate length, this tasty effort will deliver pleasure over the next 5-7 years. It is a very good value.
